

Definitions Related to Proposed Amended Section 306.7 of the ISO rules, Mothball Outage Reporting

Existing	Proposed	Blackline of Existing and Proposed
"mothball outage" means a reduction in the available capability of a source asset which is anticipated and occurs as a result of deliberate manual action and is not a planned outage. [Rules (2016-06-07)]	"mothball outage" means an anticipated reduction equal to or greater than 5 MW in the available capability of a source asset based on an assessment from the pool participant that forecast market prices and market conditions are insufficient to recover the avoidable costs of the source asset.	"mothball outage" means a-an anticipated reduction equal to or greater than 5 MW in the available capability of a source asset which is anticipated based on an assessment from the pool participant that forecast market prices and occurs as a result market conditions are insufficient to recover the avoidable costs of deliberate manual action and is not a planned outage the source asset.
"supply transmission service (STS)" means service under Rate Schedule Supply Transmission Service. [Rules (2003-06-01)]	"supply transmission service" means service under Rate STS of the ISO tariff, Supply Transmission Service.	"supply transmission service (STS)" means service under Rate STS of the ISO tariff, Supply Transmission Service, Rate Schedule Supply Transmission Service.