Location: Teams Webinar

Session Purpose

The AESO is presenting an information session on the 2022 Long-term Transmission Plan (LTP). Interested stakeholders will learn about:

- comprehensive look at future and an outlook on potential transmission projects that may be required within the next 20 years.
- the enhanced risk-based approach to planning and defers more than $1 billion in capital spending by several years through optimization compared to the 2020 LTP.

Immediately following the presentation, the AESO will allocate time for a public question period.
